Manager
Leenthrop Farmers Mutual Insurance Company

Position
Serve as manager of Company, responsible to the Board of Directors to ensure the operations of Leenthrop Mutual are conducted in a manner to support the Company's best practices, goals & objectives. The successful candidate will possess the capabilities to assume management responsibilities of a farm mutualinsurance company.

Job Duties and Responsibilities
Following is a list of functions (including but not limited to) that the manager will assume responsibility for:

- Standard insurance Company functions including interpreting policy provisions, evaluate and refine underwriting requirements.
- Provide environment for employees to fulfill and learn information so that they may successfully complete the underwriting, clerical, inspection, investigation and claims process in a manner acceptable to state & federal statutes and standard best business practices.
- Maintain technology which assists the Company employees & agents to successfully provide insurance service to its clients.
- Assist agents as to rates, analyze acceptability of risks and suggest changes, while insuring a mutually profitable book of business to agents & Company.
- Provide leadership to educate agents, employees and insured's as to the programs that are available. Develop business & marketing strategies which create new business opportunities forthe Company.
- Supervise and approve the adjustment of insurance claims and the evaluation of inspections and insurance to value.
- Prepare & distribute payroll & related documents.
- Assist the Auditors & Accountants to provide a reasonable & accurate report to policyholders & regulators.
- Cooperate & work with packaging partners to insured that their underwriting requirements and Company operating requirements are being met.
- Participate in and support local, state and national association events which promote educational opportunities.

Qualifications
- Prefer a two or four-year college degree from an accredited institution in a related field, similar employment experience and an insurance license or the ability to obtain a license within six months of beginning employment.
- Superior communication skills (verbal & written)
- Ability to develop constructive and cooperative working relationships with others and maintain them over time.
- Ability to analyze information and evaluate results to choose the best solution and solve problems.
- Position requires possession of a valid state drivers license and acceptable driving record.

Other Notes:
- Salary – Open-depending upon qualifications & experience.
- Send Resume to: Please mark "Personal & Confidential"
    - Attn: Michael Lund, President
      Leenthrop Farmers Mutual Insurance Co
      PO Box 365
      Montevideo, MN 56265
- More information contact:
    - Michael Lund, President 320-226-4499